OFFICIAL SECTION RULES OF THE 2024 SHORT FILM CONTEST

1. Application

All producers and filmmakers of short films from European countries are eligible to participate, with no age limit.

Fiction or documentary short films of any production format can participate.

The festival will take place on August 7th, 8th, 9th, and 10th, 2024.

2. Conditions

Each participant can submit a maximum of two works, produced after January 1st, 2022.

The duration cannot exceed 25 minutes.

Works that do not guarantee proper technical projection will be rejected.

Works that have participated in previous editions of the festival cannot participate.

The Festival assumes that the holders of the submitted short films hold the exhibition and promotion rights for the works and materials they represent and declines any responsibility regarding the infringement of this rule.

Productions not in Spanish must present their works with corresponding subtitles in Spanish for screening at the Festival.

3. Registration

The registration period will be from April 2nd, 2024, to June 2nd, 2024. Registration must be done as follows:

Online registration procedure (more information at <https://fecvillamayor.es/>)

When registering the work, certain data will be requested to complete the registration form. Therefore, participants who submit online do not need to send anything else by postal mail or email. Any questions will be addressed at fecvillamayor@fecvillamayor.es.

Participants authorize the organization to use excerpts from the films for dissemination in any media to promote the festival, as well as the use of film photographs for press and other media advertising.

4. Selection

From all received films, a total of seventeen will be selected for participation in the festival (twelve fiction short films and five documentary short films). The selection of films will be carried out by an organization committee, under strict quality criteria. The selection results will be made public on July 15th, 2024. The results will be communicated to all participants via email, as well as on our social networks and website where the selected films will be published. The selection committee's decision is final.

Selected films must be in the possession of the organization by July 31st, 2024, in the following format:

Codec: H.264 - Resolution: 1920 x 1080 - Fps: 25p

The festival has sufficient guarantees and insurance to cover expenses related to possible damages or loss of screening copies or any other material provided by participants, with the festival taking immediate responsibility for their replacement. Additionally, the festival will cover the return of screening copies (USB drives, hard drives, or optical media) only when such shipment is within the national territory. Selected films will be screened in public sessions at the designated venue, at the times and dates specified in the festival's official program or as determined by the organization. The organization appreciates the presence of representatives from each short film and will cover their accommodation and meals expenses, but cannot cover their travel costs for economic reasons.

5. Jury

The Official Jury, composed of professionals with recognized experience in the cultural field, will be responsible for awarding the prizes.

The jury may declare any category void due to lack of quality or absence of submissions, or award prizes ex aequo. Its decisions are final.

The awards will be presented at the Awards Gala in the municipality of Villamayor de Santiago on August 10th, 2024. The organization appreciates the presence of representatives from each short film and will cover their accommodation and meals expenses.

The audience present during screenings will award the Best Short Film prize through an online voting process after each screening session. The audience's decision is final.

6. Awards

Each of the winning short films will be awarded a trophy created for the occasion. Listed below are all the categories.

7. Acceptance of the regulations

The registration implies the acceptance of these regulations and the decisions of the organization, selection committee and festival jury. Any issue not foreseen in the regulations will be resolved by the organization of the festival

General Conditions

-The copies of the not selected films will become part of the audio-visual archive of the festival, and may be used, prior communication to the producer, for its exhibition in parallel events to the festival. The producer can completely deny this exhibition.

-The festival may organize different information sections, prior communication and authorization of the producer, with the short films not nominated, parallel to the Official Section.

- The producers of the selected short films authorize the use of a fragment of the works (maximum three minutes), for its dissemination as an information material in any media, including the Internet.
- The date and place may be modified by the organization, which will be communicated to the interested parties with sufficient time in advance.
- The organization reserves the right to modify some of these bases as well as to interpret them in case of doubt. The decisions adopted by the organization will be unappealable.
- If the festival is delayed or canceled for reasons beyond the control of the organizers, the participants will not be entitled to any compensation, but their work will remain pending to compete in it, as soon as normality is restored. Participation in this Festival implies acceptance of these rules.
